Our real estate investment funds

Our real estate investments are broadly diversified, with focuses on properties in Europe and North America in the office, residential, retail and logistics sectors that are attractive over the long term. We take a holistic, risk-conscious approach in order to generate value throughout the entire lifecycle of each asset, and we are always on the lookout for new, profitable real estate investments in Germany and abroad for our clients.

In addition to funds, individual client and joint venture solutions, we also offer our customers profound expertise and outstanding access to the world's markets.

Here are some of the special funds we currently have on offer:

Invest in specialist retail properties together with Munich Re

Performance and stability even in times of economic volatility – these are some of the main reasons to invest in specialist retail properties. We offer institutional investors the possibility to invest in this high-yield segment, with Munich Re Group at your side. We increase the potential returns for our investors by focusing on Core Plus investments and by actively taking full advantage of the leasing and property potential.

MEAG SuperStores II

Invest in European office properties at attractive entry prices together with Munich Re

We offer institutional investors with a long-term investment horizon the opportunity to profit from the current attractive entry prices for European office properties, with Munich Re Group at your side as a strong and reliable partner. Our focus in doing so lies on Core and Core Plus office properties in the CBDs of major European cities
